Aunt Tricia: What I am I going to do without you? Chris, Alexandra, Alaina, Leyton and I have loved you dearly and you are and will always be my partner in crime. At some point, we will take another 4 mile walk and then around and do it all over again.....thanks to Mike and Alex. Until we meet again....I love you!!!

It was and has been an honor to know Pat Lowder Furr and her family. Meeting her at the Lutheran Home, I quickly grew to love the Lowder family and admired their dedication to their Mother, and, to each other. She spent many days of her lunch hour with her Mother when she worked for the city. She was just a devoted daughter, sister, Mother, and friend.
