Carolyn Florence Hopkins

MAY 6, 2019

Carolyn Florence Hopkins of Greensboro, NC, formally of Albemarle passed away peacefully at Beacon Hospice House after several years of declining health. The past five years she was cared for by her daughters in Greensboro, Tracy and Kathryn. Tracy dedicated her time to the caring of her mother faithfully. Kathryn played an important roll in the care of her mother as well, making sure that she was taken to doctor's appointments and dialysis weekly. They were saints to their mother.

Carolyn was born October 27, 1937 in Atlanta, GA., and was the daughter of the late Lottie D. and James S. Florence. She was an active member of Grace Baptist Church as long as her health allowed.

Mrs. Hopkins was preceded in death by her husband Larry E. Hopkins. She is survived by three daughters Tracy Hopkins, Kathryn Miller (Cliff) of Greensboro and Jackie Mabry (Mark) of Albemarle; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.
