Dear Sarah, Rusty, and Amy, I was looking tonight on the website for a person I had heard passed in the last day and found a picture of a dear sweet cousin. Please accept my apology for not being there for him or you. This is such a shock and I am so very sorry. My prayers are with you all. God Bless You with peace and comfort. Love you.

Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.
