My deepest condolences to the family. We can always look to the Bible for comfort during these difficult times. God promises us at Revelation 21:3-4 that he, " will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God comfort your family in your time of sorrow, as we await God's promise that soon we will be able to see them again once they are resurrected according to John 5:28-29. With deepest sympathy.

I grew up with Wesley; we knew one another from a very young age. From our early days at Millingport Elementary, until the day we graduated high school together. He used to steal my chicken nuggets at lunch and I'd be so mad!! But I always looked up to him. A truly awesome guy. Hearing what happened is devastating to even me, so I can only imagine how his family and close friends feel. Prayers...
