My deepest condolences to the family. We can always look to the Bible for comfort during these difficult times. God promises us at Revelation 21:3-4 that he, " will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God comfort your family in your time of sorrow, as we await God's promise that soon we will be able to see them again once they are resurrected according to John 5:28-29. With deepest sympathy.

Loudine was my dear friend for over 50 years. Never had a cross word with each other. My kids were her kids and her kids were mine. I feel as if part of me has died. I know she is in a better place and is in no more pain. but dear God I am going to miss her. So go rest high on that mountain your work has been completed.Rejoice with your loved ones..
