We enjoyed our visits with Price, he was a humble man. Especially enjoyed sitting under the shade trees talking to him about gardening, discussing what to plant and how to take care of the garden. We had quite a few laughs together. I'll remember you as I pass by your house on the lower end of Endy Road, as we called it that way. I know you and Hallie are together in heaven. My condolences to the family. Rest in my peace, my friend.

Price was the last surviving Charter member of Endy VFD. I will miss going by and him throwing up his hand as he was sitting outside under his shade trees. No matter how many times you would go by he waved. I send my condolences to his family. I imagine he has already started his garden in heaven. He will be missed by the community, especially those that travel Endy rd.
