Ours hearts are so heavy on Kevin's passing. Ours memories of Kevin are from his high school days and coming to our home. He was friends with our son, Chad. They practiced their "rock band" in our rec room. Words cannot tell you how sorry we are. As we saw Kevin through the years he always made a point to talk to us. What a nice young man he made. Please know that he will always live in our memories, We pray that God to get you though this. Our prayers are with you all.

Our deepest condolences to the family. When our loved ones fall asleep in death, words alone cannot ease the pain of our loss. Our loving God Jehovah understands how we feel and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Psalm 147:3 reads He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. We can also find comfort from Jesus words at John 5:28-29 "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". May these scriptures bring comfort and calmness of heart to you during the difficult days ahead.
