Becky, we are sorry for your loss. Even though I've lived in Charlotte for over 30 years, and never really got to spend much time around you or Benny and your family, I've always felt a connection. I'm so glad I got to come and meet Daniel, and his family, and see everyone there. Since my mother passed over a year ago, and have lost many more relatives since then, it has given me more opportunity to think about the brevity of time, and my relationship with the Lord. I pray that he is your comforter in the time ahead and that he shows you his presence and love toward you and your family. Love, Jerry

Will miss you Benny, you were one of the funniest guys in the neighborhood growing up. We had some fun times on the ol Mill Hill. Wouldn't wanna Miss the opportunity of being neighbors up on Gobblers Knob either...all the nights Becky would cook us dinner after working second shift...good ol home fried chicken even when she burned it lol. To your family especially your son, I will be praying for their loss...God Bless
