Joe and Bonnie both will be missed tremendously. They were the most important people at the auction. They were truly the rock that held it together. We could always count on them, especially Joe. Mrs Bonnie would always arrange the tables the best way and Mr. Joe would always give the best advice.. He bragged on his grandson and Frankie constantly, we are so thankful that they both have a wonderful family. They will truly be missed. God bless the family and they are in a much better place together.
