I knew Mrs. Wyatt as a substitute at North Stanly, and I was fortunate to have her sub for many during those years when my children were young. She was a sweet, kind and patient woman. I can still see her crocheting in the teacher's lounge. I have a sweet pair of booties she crocheted for one of my daughters. She was a true blessing to me, I pray the Lord provides you comfort during this sad time.

She was a wonderful person. She babysat my husband, Elmer Lee Hill Jr, when he was an infant. When I moved here with him she treated me as someone she always known, although I was raised else where. She would give me persimmons from her tree, and a huge smile every time I saw her. We will always remember her with found memories and a warm smile!!
