Christy, Andy, Meredith, Benny and Janice, my heart is so heavy in reading of Jordan's passing. In my mind, I still imagine him and Jason running around giggling. I have looked through pics of our boys growing up together all evening. Jordan was a handsome young man with the most beautiful smile. He was a friend to everyone. To be absent in body is to be present with our Lord. I believe that! Im praying for God to wrap his loving arms around each of you and keep you nearer to him during this difficult time. Im sending you all extra love, hugs and prayes. May God bless you.

When I first heard of his passing I simply dismissed it as being some other Jordan Martin. I just couldn't fathom it was our Jordan, I didn't want to believe it. When it finally sunk in, it broke my heart. That devilish grin and brilliant sense of humor he brought to the team is how I will remember him. My prayers go up for you all but I take comfort in knowing God above created that smile and has merely welcomed home his child.
