My heart goes out to you in the loss of your dear baby. Death is never easy, it pains our hearts. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of this and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Psalm 34:18 says: Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. The promise at Revelation 21:4 is also very comforting. It says: And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. May these words strengthen and encourage you during this time of bereavement.

Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

I'm so saddened and sorry to hear the news of Mayzie's passing. And although to be absent from the body is to be in the presence of the Lord, I know loss never gets easier for those left on earth. I pray that the Lord will cover you with a blanket like peace that only He can give and that He will see you both through the upcoming days ahead. Continued prayers.
