Diane, Thank you for your words of condolence. I'm sorry it has taken so long for me to reply, but I have just now discovered your thoughts, and want to respond to your kindness, even though, due to the passage of time, I know you may never know. You still mean so much to me, and always will. Thank you...Butch

Tamara, I am so very sorry to learn of your mother's passing. She was a beautiful woman and my heart goes out to you. I actually was thinking of her Friday when I passed that tower off Hwy. 73. God bless you and your family.

Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.
