Jeff and I were close . I will always cherish our memories together . We used to play cards together even though he beat me more then once (more like all the time.) He will be missed . We spent many days at his apartment and made each other feel better . I hope somehow he knew that I really cared . We would go to Hardee's to eat breakfast and we went to a restaurant with his step brother . Jeff came to see me one day with his caretaker and he had Micheal Jackson playing . I will never forget the good advice he gave me and how he always tried to look out for my good . I tried to cheer him up and keep him company . There are so many different memories of Jeff . He was a fighter and for the most part had the best attitude . He went through a lot . One year we all went to the fair , we always had fun together . He also cheered me up , he made me laugh and he gave me company when I needed some . Gone too soon but will be forever remembered.
