Deepest sympathy to Coach Wagner and Family. Amelia was one of the most humble and kind hearted people that I know. Coach it was a great blessing to talk with you both after our games. My mom enjoyed those times spent with Amelia. She will be greatly missed. Praying for you and family to be comforted during this most difficult time.Dale Hunsucker

So sorry for your loss Larry. I taught with you at WSHS and saw you and your dear wife Amelia at Handimart when my husband and I ate there before his death recently.. I know your heart is breaking. Believe in God's will...that is the only way I am able to get thru my grief.

Amelia and I met about 54 years ago, when she moved into the house across the street. We became instant friends. Unfortunately, she moved away at some point and I did not get to see her very often. We kept in touch for a long time, but gradually health reason for both of us kept us from keeping in close touch. I am sorry for that. She was a very special person, easy to talk to, laugh with. Our children grew up together, played together. She is now in God's hands. Memories are forever. Prayers for Larry, Karen and Elizabeth and their families. Joan
