I remember going to Misenheimer as a kid and my cousin, Lonzo showing me a photo of the girl he was dating. He was so proud! I could tell he was so in love with her! I thought she was beautiful! When I met her I saw she was beautiful inside and out. When I talked to Lonzo a few days ago he said what I knew was always true, "She was my everything." And, she was! Marsha was a wonderful wife and mother. Most of all she was a devout Christian. She always had a light that shown from within. I loved the time Marsha and Lonzo came to visit me in the mountains. Even though I didn't see them often, when I did it was like no time had passed. Marsha and Aunt Geneva are dancing in Heaven. ❤️
