I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

My dear daughter, Tamara, and granddaughters Alivia, Blayke, and little Layla, I am so heart-broken that I can only be with you in spirit at this, the hardest time of your life. Words cannot express my feelings. I'm holding all of you in my arms. Many prayers were said even here in faraway Ecuador for our precious Johnathan by me and all my friends who only knew him from my bragging tales about the many adventures we had together and the photos I'm putting together into a scrap book to be sent to you within the next few days. Johnathan, your precious soul is soaring toward Him in everlasting joy!
