I am deeply sorry for your loss. My condolences to you Debbie, Misty and Bob's whole family. May his soul rest in peace and may God wrap his arms around you all and carry you through this darkness. When Great Trees Fall Maya Angelou When great trees fall, rocks on distant hills shudder, lions hunker down in tall grasses, and even elephants lumber after safety. When great trees fall in forests, small things recoil into silence, their senses eroded beyond fear. When great souls die, the air around us becomes light, rare, sterile. We breathe, briefly. Our eyes, briefly, see with a hurtful clarity. Our memory, suddenly sharpened, examines, gnaws on kind words unsaid, promised walks never taken. Great souls die and our reality, bound to them, takes leave of us. Our souls, dependent upon their nurture, now shrink, wizened. Our minds, formed and informed by their radiance, fall away. We are not so much maddened as reduced to the unutterable ignorance of dark, cold caves. And when great souls die, after a period peace blooms, slowly and always irregularly. Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration. Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us. They existed. They existed. We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.

For the family of Bob, Bob, My dearest old friend. Oh of the times we have had playing music, hunting, fishing, and chatting on the phone. You helped me learn the fretboard of a guitar and I helped you learn to use a hammer. :) Yes folks, I taught him painting, carpentry and a little mechanical. Mostly we shared a very deep friendship that has lasted over 30 yrs. Always a man of his word, a man whose friendship you could count on. As I say see you later my friend, through the tears you know I was proud to know you here on earth, I salute you and will see you again. To know you was to love you. --- Gordon

Bob, So many thoughts of you are running thru my head. Like wishing you Happy Birthday 2 days ago on Fb, 3 weeks ago texting back forth on FB along time. random calls, you coming up at holidays, never forgetting. Boop or Mrs.C, as you called her in 1981, and Daddy, Tom, as you called him, at band practice. When they left this dŸŒ, for heaven, you where here, thru our kids, before our kids, at our wedding you played, "T here is Love" for us. TLC band from 1981-1986, 1990-1992. And when we got the dreaded call and Daddy came to my work to tell me you where shot. All of the band were there with your family, until after the surgery. And even in pain, when Jerry said, " Hey Bob, you said, " No Jerry you can't have my Les Paul", we cracked up, you could only grin. Back up to 1980, when we met, ABTech, on dinner break, starting talking about music, "John Lennon", your favorite. Talked about forming band. Practiced together, boom added Jerry, you all shared dŸŒ. You both just clicked. Boom Bobby, boom Gordon, first gig was July 4th, 1981, at the lake, then 1984 Blenda, {Bea.}, started, but was with us Wolfe Laurel, 1981. We had so much fun and all the others years From 1980 - 2014. I didn't have to see you to know you were only a phone call away. This really hasn't hit me yet, Gordon called me, my hands full of hair, he told me to call him back, was racing home to call him, Jerry asked if Gordon called, Jerry in tears broke the news, Gordon on the other phone now, telling me, holding back tears also. On my way with Autumn to Church I called Bea, Gordon called her, she wanted him to wait til I was home to tell me. See we all still cared about you, time has never stopped that or the miles. We all loved you Bob!!! I will always cherish our friendship. I had to write all this to you, just the way I am, you know that. YOU JUST MADE HEAVEN A LITTLE SWEETER! But my heart is breaking right now. Until we all see eachother again. Love you and will miss you and that laugh only you Had!! Tanya
