Sorry to hear about Ginny, worked with her at Merita about 30 years ago and loved her. Saw her a few months back at lunch one day and we picked right back up as if we still worked together. My kids even called her Mimaw back then, just like she was their own.

I meet Ginny about 30 years ago at the bread store. We both were avid Carolina Tarheel fans. I remember the years she would make a Carolina scrapbook the Tarheels would go all the way. My husband and daughter and would ask throughout the years if Ginny was making a scrapbook "this year". My daughter now grown, grew up with Ginny the bread lady as she called her. I loved Ginny and kept in touch with her when she moved to Newton for a few years. I saw her in K-Mart just a few months ago and of course we talked about our beloved Tarheels. My heart is heavy and my prayers are with the family.
