So sorry to hear about Brenda. She was a lovely lady and I enjoyed working with her on the 7th flr. of the Jefferson Standard Building years ago. She helped train me in my position as secretary to Ralph Proffitt....best job I ever had with Southern Bell. Brenda was as smart and fun loving as she was beautiful. She will be missed.

To Brenda's Family:I am so very sorry for your loss. I have been acquainted w/Brenda since late 1962 when I first began working w/Southern Bell (now AT&T) in Charlotte. Have so many good memories of our 'back when' days. My thoughts/prayers are surely with each family member, and I pray that God will bless each of you now, and always...
