Please allow me to offer my condolences to the family of, Ms. Oxendine. One day, before Martha's brother Lazarus took sick and died, Jesus provided new information on the resurrection hope, saying: Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. (John 5:28, 29) This is the resurrection hope for, Ms. Willow, as well. Truly, the resurrection is something for us to look forward to with eager anticipation and joy. I hope that this verse will comfort you and, I hope you and your family can get through this difficult time. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beloved daughter, sister and friend. Sincerely, Meryl

My heart is just breaking. I talked to her maybe 2 weeks ago maybe longer. She made me promise to come by and play checkers with her. She said she was the best. We will never know but I will give it to her now. My grandpa and brother are in heaven and probably playing checkers, too. Hopefully she can find them and challenges them to a game. She was a beautiful person inside and out with a heart of not only gold but platinum. She loved animals and they loved her. She will be severely missed!
