My condolences to the family. Isaiah 25:8 says that Death is going to be swallowed up forever. All tears will be wiped away...The bible provides a hope that our loved ones who have passed away can be resurrected (John 5:28,29). May your family gain a measure of comfort from the bibles promises.

Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

I just heard tonight that Mrs. Helms had passed away. I am so very sorry for your loss. She was my assistant when I taught kindergarten at Wesley Chapel and was always so sweet to the children. I loved working with her and have fond memories of her during the years we worked together. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

Mitch, Sherry and family - You had a very precious Mom. She was always a joy to be around even when her mind was not what it once was. She had that beautiful smile and she talked about her children. Cherish your precious memories and know that you all did your best for her. You will see her one day~~ Love in Christ, Hugh and Mary Lib

Sherry, Mitchell and family, it is with sorrow that I read of your mother's passing. She was such an example of a good Christian woman. I loved having her for a Sunday School teacher at Sutton Park. May God comfort and guide you in the coming days and weeks as you adjust to her being absent from your lives.
