Dear Diana, you have suffered so much through life, and then we're so cheerful through it all. I never heard you complain at all through the long years furthermore, I never heard you say a bad word about anyone ever. This showed a high level of character that you taught me through living your Christian sermon spoken through your life. May you rest in peace from those who tormented you.

I remember Diane as a lovely, kind soul. Particularly close to her brother Dennis, I know he will feel this loss the most. While Di has the blessed assurance of eternal life, those who knew and loved her will no doubt be deeply saddened that she is no longer with us. My most sincere condolences to all affected by her death.

Di will be missed. I did not have the pleasure of spending much time with her but have many stories that have painted a picture. Her love of the church, her family and friends was very evident. I am certain her journey to the heavens will be filled with love. God bless you Diana.

To the family of Delores Fahey: Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Even though this is a sad time try to fill your hearts full of hope and appreciation for the kind of life your loved one lived. We are very thankful for the ransom, because as a result of it, it makes the resurrection a reality John 5:28,29. We are thankful for the Bible's reference to death as an enemy that will soon no longer threaten the human family Revelation 21:4. May you find comfort during this difficult time.
