This is a tough thing to accept, although I do have many memories of time spent with him. He let me drive (with both hands on the wheel) of course, probably when I was 15 years old (permit). He told me to "just pick it up Mike"..golf. He ate Sunday dinner with us many times. I hope he knew how much we all loved him & Millie, and I know how they both loved dogs (Me too). Glad that he was one of my Uncles. Rest in Peace...

From all the Bill McNeely clan down in Georgia, Mike, Dan, Patricia and Pat, and all the children and family, we will miss Richard. We know he is at peace now and our thoughts, prayers and love go out to Millie and the family. I will always remember how Richard gave me three dollars one time for cleaning out his car, which was a fortune to me, a little fat 10 year old boy! :) Love to all!
