Sina was my first friend here in Charlotte. We met in 2016 and soon became very close. I am so sad for this incredible loss. Sina was also very close to my daughter, Paige, who recently turned 17. We will always remember Sina as the bright light she was in our lives, with something pleasant to say to everyone. I miss her so much and hope she knows how much she touched us both. I am honored to have known Sina, as is my daughter. I will never forget her friendship, sincerity, and bravery in the face of her illness. Thank you, God, for bringing Sina into my life, albeit briefly. RIP, my sweet, dear friend. You were like a sister to me. ðŹ

To Sina's love ones. I was very sorry to hear about Sina. Unfortunately, we lost contact a couple of years ago. I was thinking I may of done something wrong as she withdrew from me at the time I thought we starting a wonderful relationship, until I received a call from her niece this past weekend. I understand now why and it was not me, but will always wished I was given the chance to help comfort her in her time of need, but I expect she wanted me to remember her as I currently remembered her, a beautiful, kind and loving lady.
