Kimberly, Lauren, Betty, Janet Ted and all the family, please accept my heartfelt condolences on Linda's homegoing. I grew up knowing all of the Hilton's. Linda was a fun person and I know she loved all of you. I will pray for peace, strength and comfort as you all walk through this time of deep grief. She will be waiting for all of you to join the party. What a celebration that is going to be for all of us. God bless you all.

Linda was so much fun. Wherever she went that's where the party was! I am happy to be her adopted [unofficial } sister. I know she was frustrated with her earthly body. She had worked so hard with her therapy but it still was not responding as she had hoped. Now she is perfect again. I miss her greatly.

So sorry Kim & Lauren for the loss of your Mother & Grandmother. She was a beautiful person. She loved you both so very much. She was my Aunt, but she was more like a sister to me. I have so many beautiful memories of Linda & I growing up together. We shared a lot of good times together. She will truly be missed by so many who knew her.
