Dear family, My heart aches from the grief that you are suffering. Knowing of God's embracing love for you, continue looking to him when " He will wipe out all tears from our eyes, death, pain, and suffering will be no more. " - Revelation 21: 3,4 He says death is an " enemy that will be brought to nothing. " 1 - Corinthians 15:26 It comforts our hearts to know this pain will be a thing of the past and through Christ the resurrection of our loved ones. We " do not sorrow just as the rest do who have no hope! " 1 Thessalonians 4:13 love from a stranger, jrfdog@gmail.com

My grandma was an incredible person who touched the hearts of every person she met. She was an inspiration to everyone with her beautiful spirit and her positivity. Anyone who ever met her would say she would light up the room when she walked in. I am so thankful for all of the wisdom she shared with me and all of the wonderful memories. I love you grandma and miss you dearly. One day I will be able to see you again and do some square dancing with you!

So very very sorry for your loss. We knew Mazie through square dancing, and I loved to get her laughing. "Oh Patty Girl" she would say when I got her good. She has been and will continue to be missed by the square dance community and all who knew her.
