I worked with Narelle for years at Stanly County and the planning and zoning department and she was in the tax office. She was always so sweet and kind to deal with and such a lovely person. I'm sure she will be missed by family and friends

Moving to Albemarle at the age of 13 was tough. That's an awkward age for girls, but I was blessed to have Norall as a friend. We attended church together at West Albemarle Baptist Church. She was beautiful, kind and brightened up my life! Thank you, Norall. I will never forget you!
