Raymond Joseph Miller

MAR 19, 1929 - FEB 20, 2025

Raymond Joseph Miller of Albemarle, North Carolina passed away quietly February 20, 2025, surrounded by his family. Raymond was 95 years old, just one month short of his 96th birthday.

He was born March 19th, 1929, in Detroit, Michigan to Elizabeth (Elsie) Bohr and Samuel Clyde Miller (New London, NC). He was a 1947 graduate of New London High School.

In 1952 Raymond was called to serve his country in the US Army during the Korean War. He was trained at Fort Bliss Army Post, in El Paso, Texas. After his initial training he was selected to train other soldiers to operate and maintain the newly developed Nike Missile System located at White Sands, New Mexico.

After his military service, he was employed at Alcoa Aluminum in Badin, NC as an electrical engineer and gained experience with two-way radio equipment. Having a keen aptitude for electronics and two-way radio equipment, he worked at home in the afternoon and evening hours growing his own two-way radio service. He terminated his employment with Alcoa after 19 years to focus entirely on his growing business, Two Way Radio. He retired at 65 years old and sold his business.

Raymond maintained a very active life after retirement. He had a keen interest in motorcycles. For many years he owned many Harley Davidson Motorcycles. He traveled extensively crossing the United States with friends and family members. He enjoyed restoring antique motorcycles, some of which received national recognition. He was a member of and actively involved in the Antique Motorcycle Club of America.

He also was known for his interest in antique automobiles. He owned and restored an early model Ford Thunderbird which he kept for many years. He was an active member in the T-Bird Club of North Carolina.

Raymond is preceded in death by his loving wife of 67 years, Ruby Talbert Miller, his

Raymond was a good friend of mine for over 80 years. We both joined the Coast and Geodetic Survey shortly after graduating High School and traveled to Alaska. On our return from Alaska we took separate paths in life, but we always remained close friends. I will miss him dearly. Our sincerest condolences to the family - Casey Fesperman & Family
