Judy Sides Corriher, 81, of New London passed away on Friday, March 28, 2025, at Tucker Hospice House. Her funeral service will be at 5 pm on Thursday, April 3, 2025, at the Stanly Funeral and Cremation Care Chapel in Albemarle with Pastor Toney Parsons officiating. Burial will follow at New London Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 3 until 5 pm prior to the service.

Judy was born in Stanly County on October 30, 1943, to the late Earnest and Ruby Sides. She is lovingly survived by her husband, Ernest Corriher of 62 years. Those also left to cherish her memory are her daughter Kristie McCowan and her husband Joe of New London, grandchildren, Noah McCowan, Elijah McCowan, and Josiah McCowan, great-grandchildren, Jameson, sister, Peggy Hurt, and brother, Terry Sides.

Judy was a great wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She loved her trips to the beach where she enjoyed long walks on the beach and shelling. Judy loved to cook for large crowds and really enjoyed sharing her cooking talents with students where she found joy in providing holiday meals. She enjoyed gardening and canning. Judy was very active at Gold Hill Baptist when her health permitted.

The family would like to express their sincere gratitude to Pastor Toney Parsons, Kara Connell, Jasmine Provost, special cousin Debbie, and the staff at Tucker Hospice House for all the care they provided to Judy during her declining health.

Judy was wonderful to me when I started working at New London Choice Middle School. She was kind and knew where all the "good" bulletin board supplies were kept. She loved sharing her recipes. Her cheese danish was my favorite. Heaven gained a sweet soul. Praying for the family.
