“ Prayers lifted for the family of Elaine. Elaine and I knew each other for many years both through the family and working together at Hospice. She was quite a sweetheart and a kind and compassionate person. She will surely be missed but in the times of our life right now she's with our Lord and in a heavenly place where we all plan to be one day celebrating in her homecoming Prayers lifted for the family of Elaine. “ Elaine knew how to be a friend and she was one of the most precious friends we ever had. We went through some unforgettable times together. Distance has separated us for over 20 years, but the place she had and will always have in our hearts will always be just a memory away. We know she is in heaven now, but she sure will be missed here. We are praying for her family. Love--Pastor Jon & Gale
