“ You are missed and thought of often. I Trust that you are in Heaven with our Savior. I laugh as I think if the Sunday we were in church and the preacher gave the altar call and while you didn't go up, he asked if anyone didn't know for sure that they were saved raise their hand. You did raise your hand but never expected the preacher to come to you which he did and he spent about 20 minutes praying with you. I'm so glad he did but I can remember you having a fit after church and we laughed because you said you wouldn't have ever raised your hand if you thought he was coming to you. It was funny remembering how you reacted but at the same time now grateful that you made sure. Love and miss you always
